Contents

Acknowledgments .............................................................................. iv
To Tell a Story, N. Deschu ................................................................. 1
Introduction, R. Brewer ..................................................................... 3
Overview of M/V Selendang Ayu Response, R. Morris ............... 5
The Oil Comes Ashore, N. Deschu ................................................. 17
Shipwrecks, Spills and Seabirds: Wildlife at Risk on the Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge, A. Morkill .... 19
Remote Wildlife Response Issues: A Case Study of the Selendang Ayu Response in Unalaska, Alaska, B. Callahan, C. Clumpner .......................................................... 33
Impacts of Oil Spills on Unalaska Island Marine Mammals, D. Rocque ............................................................... 42
The Storm on Shelikof, N. Deschu .................................................... 47
Impacts from Oil Spills on Fisheries and to the Seafood Industry That Supports the City of Unalaska, F. Kelty ...... 49
M/V Selendang Ayu Response, L. Pearson .................................. 55
NOAA Support for the M/V Selendang Ayu Oil Spill Scientific Issues, J. Whitney ..................................................... 59
A Story Softly Wrapped, N. Deschu ................................................. 75
Community Responses to Oil Spills: Lessons to Be Learned from Technological Disaster Research, D. Gill, L. Ritchie. 77
The Oil Pollution Act and Natural Resource Damage Assessment and Restoration Process, J. Kohout .......... 97
Coping with Technological Disasters: Helping Communities Help Themselves, L. Ka’aihue ......................... 100
Subsistence: Users and Stewards, D. Garza .................................. 114
The Barren Islands, N. Deschu ........................................................ 119
Lessons Learned and Final Thoughts — Aleutian Life Forum, Dutch Harbor, Alaska, R. Brewer ......................... 121
Thanks to Organizers, Sponsors, and Presenting Organizations ........................................................................ 130