
Table of Contents

Foreword.....	iii
1. Defining Direct Marketing.....	1
2. The Seafood Distribution System.....	5
3. Marketing Concepts	9
4. Finding Customers.....	13
5. E-Commerce.....	17
6. Planning Your Business	21
7. Accounting for Your Fish Business.....	25
8. Considering Quality	29
9. Working with a Custom-Processor	33
10. Packaging and Shipping of Seafood Products	37
11. Live Shipping.....	41
12. Setting Up Your Boat for Direct Marketing	43
13. Direct Marketing Prawns	47
14. Marketing Internationally.....	51
Appendices.....	56
A. Fisheries Business Financing and Business Assistance in Alaska	56
B. Working with the IFQ Program.....	58
C. Safety and Sanitation Requirements	61
D. Common Mistakes in HACCP	62
E. Salmon Roe	65
F. Refrigeration Considerations.....	66
G. Box Insulation Values and Gel Pack Effectiveness.....	67
H. Processing and Storage Costs.....	68
I. Alaska Seafood Marketing Institute Recommended Statewide Quality Specifications for Alaska Fresh and Frozen Wild Salmon	69
J. Permits, Licenses, Bonds, Reporting, and Taxes Required for Alaska Seafood Direct Marketers and Small-Scale Processors	72
K. State and Local Regulations in Oregon	78
L. Marketing Your Own Catch: State and Local Regulations in Washington	81
M. Sources of Information and Materials	82
N. Glossary of Seafood Business Terms.....	84
O. Business Plan Outline.....	86