

Aleutian Islands Waterway Safety Committee Informational Meeting

One of the top recommendations of the Aleutian Islands Risk Assessment is to bring together stakeholders in a proactive forum to determine ways to reduce risk, prevent accidents, and foster collaboration among a diverse set of waterway users in a non-regulatory body. Learn about possible ways forward and help determine next steps.

What

A meeting to gather ideas that will inform a future waterway safety committee for the Aleutians region.

When

Wednesday, April 26th 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Where

Grand Aleutian Hotel, Unalaska

Who

Mariners, community members, vessel operators, fishermen, anyone interested in proactive safety and risk reduction in the Aleutians
