BBEDC/MAP Nuts and Bolts of Seafood Processing part 2
February 15th 8am – February 16th 5 pm in Naknek

Goals: a reality check for communities wishing to get into the fish processing business, if they do wish to proceed in the fish processing business will have a good basic understanding of the involvement, gather local “mom and pop” fish processors to share their success and failures.
Intended Audience – Individuals representing communities of Bristol Bay that have expressed an interest in building a community seafood processing establishment.

Wednesday 2/15 –

8:00 – 10:00
Introductions – Glenn Haight, Alaska Department of Commerce, Community and Economic Development
BBEDC Plans for Bristol Bay – Bob Waldrop, Andy Ruby

10:15 – 12:00
Cooperatives – Bill Barker, Olga-Moser Bay Seafood Producers Alliance
Regulations – Ernest Thomas, Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation

1:00 – 3:15
Financing Sources –
CFAB – JoAnn Rodamaker
Division of Investments – LuJean Fedotov
Wells Fargo Bank – Chuck Munk
USDA – Spud Williams

3:30-5:30
Quality – Don Kramer – UAF Marine Advisory Program

Thursday 2/16 –

8:00 – 10:00
Review – Glenn Haight
Roe – Terry Reeve, UAF Marine Advisory Program
Oil Extraction – Subramaniam Sathivel, UAF Fishery Industrial Technology Center

10:00 – 12:00
Gasification – Liz Brown, UAF Marine Advisory Program
Product Development – Doug Drum, Indian Valley Meats

1:00 – 5:00
Site visits or Consultations